CORD MEYER DEVELOPMENT TO SERVE AS PREMIER SPONSOR OF FRIENDS OF CROCHERON & JOHN GOLDEN PARK

The Queens-based real estate developer will sponsor activities to help conserve and improve Crocheron and John Golden Park in Bayside, Queens.

Queens, NY – February XX, 2022...Cord Meyer Development will serve as the Premier sponsor of Friends of Crocheron & John Golden Park, a not-for-profit organization that works alongside New York City Parks to advocate for improvements to the 63-acre park situated at 214th Street and 35th Avenue in Bayside, Queens. The announcement was made jointly by Friends of Crocheron & John Golden Park Director Jessica Burke and Cord Meyer President and CEO Matthew Whalen.

“Friends of Crocheron & John Golden Park is a vital community resource that relies on outside support to accomplish its many goals,” explained Burke. “Cord Meyer approached us and asked about sponsorship opportunities. We were thrilled and developed a Premier sponsorship to match their level of commitment. Having Cord Meyer as a partner will help us purchase plants, fund our monthly service events, and attract more volunteers. We look forward to a long and rewarding relationship with the company and its employees.”

Founded in 1904, Cord Meyer is a developer, owner, and operator of retail, commercial, and residential properties in Queens, including its historic Bay Terrace Shopping Center, located less than one mile from Crocheron Park.

“Like the Crocheron family for whom the park is named, Cord Meyer’s roots in Queens go back generations,” observed Whalen. “We are proud of our deep connection to the community and actively seek partnerships with groups that are committed to improving the area for residents and visitors alike. Friends of Crocheron & John Golden Park is highly successful at bringing together individuals with a range of skills at its many volunteer events. Cord Meyer is honored to support the Friends group and looks forward to meeting everyone at the upcoming Golden Pond Cleanup.”

On Saturday, March 19th, anyone interested in helping to clean Golden Pond and the surrounding vicinity should meet at Golden Pond in Crocheron Park at 11 AM. All are welcome and there will be free T-shirts for volunteers. To register, visit www.crocheronpark.org/reg.

Founded in 2020, Friends of Crocheron & John Golden Pond assists NYC Parks in stewardship of the parkland, which today consists of Crocheron Park and the adjoining John Golden Park. By protecting environmentally sustainable functions of the pond, woodlands, and gardens, the volunteer organization helps support pollinator populations, wildlife, and biodiversity while also creating environments that support educational endeavors.
